

Rainbow Mesh Bracelet

Please refer to the Free basic instructions on our website or inside the Mesh starter pack - How to make a Mesh bracelet with large beads. This is just to show you how to blend the colours together using sequins.

Start to string your sequins onto some tigertail or thread in the following pattern -

You can use as many different coloured sequins as you like, in large or small sections.

With larger colour blending sections.

Rainbow Mesh Bracelet

Please refer to the Free basic instructions on our website or inside the Mesh starter pack - How to make a Mesh bracelet with large beads. This is just to show you how to blend the colours together using sequins.

Start to string your sequins onto some tigertail or thread in the following pattern -

You can use as many different coloured sequins as you like, in large or small sections.

With larger colour blending sections.

Rainbow Mesh Bracelet

Please refer to the Free basic instructions on our website or inside the Mesh starter pack - How to make a Mesh bracelet with large beads. This is just to show you how to blend the colours together using sequins.

Start to string your sequins onto some tigertail or thread in the following pattern -

You can use as many different coloured sequins as you like, in large or small sections.

With larger colour blending sections.

Rainbow Mesh Bracelet

Please refer to the Free basic instructions on our website or inside the Mesh starter pack - How to make a Mesh bracelet with large beads. This is just to show you how to blend the colours together using sequins.

Start to string your sequins onto some tigertail or thread in the following pattern -

You can use as many different coloured sequins as you like, in large or small sections.

With larger colour blending sections.

