For all our tasting notes on all our wine,
plus music dates and tastings

In 1780 Jean-Pierre Lafond's great-uncle, Pascal Odoyer, became one of the pioneers of wine production in the Southern Rhone and started an estate that has stayed within the family ever since. In 1970 Jean-Pierre Lafond decided to build a fully working cellar for their production. He was a passionate follower of all things equine and named it after a famous race horse: Roquepine. He transformed the spelling slightly to give it a more 'Provencal' feel and thus Domaine Lafond Roc-Epine was born. In 2001 the Domain purchased vineyards in Chateauneuf du Pape. The 8700 square metre vineyard produces only 4,000 bottles! In 2009 the decision was made to become100% organic.

Lirac Blanc 2023

46

A lovely mix of Grenache Blanc, Rousanne and Viognier. stone fruit, floral notes, herbal and zesty. Ideal solo and with seafood. Rounded, creamy stone fruit, floral and herbal hints.....white blossom, fresh peach, apple, lemon and wet stone

Cotes du Rhone 2021/2

41

Grenache, Syrah, Carignan & Mourvedre. A complex wine combining freshness and smoothness. It offers a nose of red fruit of morello cherries and dark red soft fruit. After an ample and firm attack, the mouth expresses nuances of spices and supple tannins which persist until the end -a rich wine with a very good length. Great with cold meats, red meats, game and cheese.

Lirac Rouge 2021

48

Grenache, Syrah & Mourvedre. Black and red fruit nose. The supple palate is packed with juicy berry fruits and nice chalky tannins. The finish is fresh, detailed, long and palate-staining.

Lirac La Ferme Rouge 2019/20

53

Grenache, Syrah & Mourvedre. Wine of a beautiful balance and a rare finesse, a very deep black colour with a purple hue. It of-fers a complex nose of cinnamon, cooked fruit and sour cherries. After a full and firm attack, the palate expresses vanilla and peppery nuances which persist until the finish. It is a supple and rich wine with a very good length.

Chateauneuf du Pape Roc Epine 2020

71

Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre. Chateauneuf du Pape Roc Epine is a sweetly fruited, elegant red that gives up notions of black raspberry, melted liquorice, sweet spice and hints of crushed flowers. Medium-bodied, supple and nicely textured, with fine tan-nin and excellent freshness and focus. Every sip makes you want to go back for more
