Course outline

Memorable sketches can arise from the most unlikely places! This workshop is about having a bit of fun with watercolour. Looking at the everyday and invoking movement in your sketch using watercolour and pen if needed. This workshop is about loosening up and having fun. Primarily for complete beginners but if you are already on your watercolour journey and just want to loosen up for a day then this is for you.

Materials required.

A4 landscape sketchbook for watercolour. 2B pencil, eraser, waterproof fine liner 0.3mm, a set of watercolour paints. Ideally including 2 of each primary. Eg: Cadmium yellow, Lemon yellow, Cobalt blue, Ultramarine blue, Alizarin crimson and Cadmium red. Earth colours Yellow Ochre, Burnt umber and Burnt Sienna. A selection of synthetic watercolour brushes sizes 2, 6, 8 and 10 are ideal . A beginners set is adequate. Palette for mixing, an old dinner plate is ideal. If you have no paints at all, the tutor can provide sufficient qty. of artist quality paints. Fee £8.00 payable to the tutor.

Tutor Biography:

Marks teaching cuts through the jargon that can deter beginners. His no nonsense, hands on approach gives beginners the confidence to get paint on paper and produce very pleasing results in a short space of time. When he is not producing his own work, Mark is a regular at the bookshop. He taught in Marlborough College Summer School in 2022, and offers private tuition.
