

Beginners Next Step - Seascapes

With
Lyn Armstrong

This workshop is for beginners or refreshers who would like to take the next step to painting in watercolour. Seascapes offer plenty of scope for painting interesting skies, and the beautiful colours that can be found in the sea, sand and rocks. Plenty of step by step tuition and easy to follow sketches and techniques to enable you to paint a seascape.

Suitable for beginners and refreshers

Please bring along your own watercolour materials, if you have some, to include:

- Watercolour paper, plus spare for practise and testing (bockingford 140lb Not surface is a good all round inexpensive paper)
- Watercolour paints/ mixing plate or palette.
- Selection of brushes
- Pencils, rubber and masking tape
- Rag or kitchen roll
