

YOGA HOLIDAYS & ADD ONS with Yoga United Winter 2026 - 2027

Please read this document carefully as they set out our respective rights and obligations.

1. Booking, Deposit & Final balance payments - Your deposit payment through the website or by BACS payment from an invoice is non-refundable. The deposit payment confirms your booking and this contract. We will send you an updated invoice as confirmation of booking and therefore, we are entitled to assume that you have had the opportunity to read and agree to these terms and conditions.
2. Please check the invoice carefully as soon as you receive it and contact us if anything is incorrect (e.g. single or shared occupancy), incomplete or you wish to add extra nights (on half-board breakfast & dinner & includes all taxes), upgrades or add ons.
3. The deposit required for booking is non-refundable. In the event of cancellation, guests may transfer to another guest (introduced by you).
4. Single occupancy is for travellers who are holidaying on their own. Yogaunited do not arrange room shares with guests who do not know each other so if you do not have someone to share with, Yogaunited will automatically apply the single occupancy rate. You can add a friend or partner at a later date and refund the difference between rates.
5. The price quoted for any holiday covers the cost of planning, organisation, relevant equipment and use of yoga hall, accommodation, transfers on recommended flights, meals and guided trips, only as stated. The full holiday price includes a 5% admin fee in addition to the holiday price that is non-returnable.
6. Once the deposit payment has been made and invoice issued, then subject to correction of errors, we aim not to increase or decrease the price of the holiday due to exchange rates, transportation costs or taxes. However, due to the current climate, we reserve the right to surcharge up to 8% of the total holiday costs if transportation or food costs increase. For recommended flights and your own transfers, we may offer a rough figure to expect but this may vary.
7. Full balance payments are due by 1 November 2026 by BACS payment as per invoice. For any bookings made after this date, the full amount is due on the invoice date. If you wish to make payment by credit card, a transaction and admin fee is added as agreed at the time of invoicing.

8. Cancellation - If the guest cancels the holiday for whatever reason including visa refusal after 1 November 2026, there will be 40% refund; less than 30 days before departure, no refund. The full holiday price includes an additional 5% admin fee that is non-returnable. It is advised to apply for your visa as early as possible. You may check with your insurer if you make a claim for cancellation.
9. In the most unlikely event that Yoga United Ltd cancel the holiday, the cost of your holiday will be refunded in full with the exception of your own travel costs, and a 5% admin fee.
10. If for any reason, the designated teacher is unable to take any sessions, every attempt will be made to find a replacement teacher of a similar professional standard.
11. The itinerary in the promotional material may vary with minimum adjustment, depending on weather, sun and moon times, sightseeing opportunities, tour availability, and the individual teacher's schedule.
12. Cancellation of retreats due to Covid 19 or other restrictions in India - you will receive a voucher for the non-refundable deposit that you can use for another Yoga United Holiday. Other advance payments will be refunded minus a 5% admin charge.
13. Requirements for travel - All guests must have a valid passport (at least 6 months remaining), a valid Indian tourist visa (or other), and relevant vaccinations as required by Indian authorities to travel and stay in India. Check with your travel agent/health provider.
14. This holiday is sold to guests as independent travellers and as such, flights and any other claims you choose to pursue should be made directly to the relevant party. Yoga United Ltd is not liable for any airline changes, delays or costs.
15. All guests must have their own comprehensive travel, cancellation & health insurance in place prior to travel. You will need to disclose any health issues to your insurer or ask your doctor for a certificate that states you are fit to travel.
16. Yoga United Ltd cannot take any responsibility for compensation. It is essential that you have adequate and appropriate insurance cover for your whole trip, cancellations costs from the date of booking as well as medical expenses (including evacuation and repatriation). If you travel against advice, the validity of your insurance policy may be affected. Yoga United Ltd accepts no responsibility or liability for supplier failure personal accident, illness, death, loss, theft or damage to self or personal goods.

17. Yoga United will provide assistance in finding appropriate emergency health care and contacting your insurer should you need support with any valid medical insurance claims until a hand over to insurance company for ongoing treatment or repatriation.
18. Yoga United Ltd is not liable for costs relating to any extension due to illness or extreme and adverse weather conditions that would present a danger to travel.
19. If you have any diagnosed physical, medical or mental conditions, or you are under medical supervision, you are required to notify Yoga United Ltd prior to travel. Where requested, and following recent illness or current health condition, you are required to send a doctor's certificate of fitness to travel. Non disclosure of information can invalidate your insurance.
20. If you are in doubt as to the suitability of yoga for your condition, please consult your doctor and let the teacher know of any relevant condition or issue which may affect your practice.
21. The Foreign and Commonwealth Office publishes regularly updated travel information www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice which you are recommended to consult before booking and in good time before departure.
22. Conditions of suppliers: Suppliers, including transport operators, provide their services in accordance with their own terms and conditions. Yogaunited cannot be responsible for what our suppliers or agents do if they were not carrying out work specifically contracted or arranged by Yogaunited. These terms may limit or exclude their liability to you in the event of death, personal injury, delay or loss / damage of personal possessions.
23. Our promise to you – all trip arrangements we have agreed to make or provide as part of this contract with you are made and provided with the greatest of skill and care. A Yogaunited representative will be present on your holiday and available to speak to in the event of any issues. If you have complaints or you feel we have not kept our promise to you, it is your responsibility to let the Yogaunited rep know as soon as possible so they can resolve it or attend to any alternative arrangements if services have not been properly provided.

24. We expect all guests to have consideration for other people and the local culture. If in our reasonable opinion or in the reasonable opinion of any other person in authority, you behave in such a way as to cause or be likely to cause danger, upset, abuse or distress to other guests, staff or to any third party or damage to property, we will make you aware and ask you to change your behaviour or pay for any damages. We are entitled, without prior notice, to terminate your holiday. You will be required to leave the holiday immediately and we will have no further responsibility towards you. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the withdrawal. You will in addition have to indemnify us against any loss or expense that may be incurred as a result of your actions.
25. You accept responsibility for any damage or loss caused by you. Full payment for any such damage or loss (reasonably estimated if not precisely known) must be made direct to the accommodation owner or manager or other supplier or to us as soon as possible.
26. Each person in your party is required to email a separate signed copy of this document back to Yoga United Ltd. office@yogaunited.com

To clarify any of these t&cs, please put in writing and email to office@yogaunited.com
