France, Alsace	Riesling Classic, Famille Hugel 	Riesling	 2023 2022	£28 £16 half	fish, seafood	This Famille Hugel signature wine, dry Riesling, stands out for its finesse, frankness, wonderful balance and elegance. The Hugel family has been making wines in Alsace ever since 1639 with the 25 hectares vineyard located in Riquewihr. Today, the white wines produced in Alsace are considered to be some of the best worldwide...
	Pinot Gris Classic, Famille Hugel 	Pinot Gris	 2023	£28	white meats, fish in sauce, terrines	A wine of remarkable character and freshness, truly dry and gastronomic. The most discreet of all Alsace varieties in primary aromas, it enjoys the best aging potential. ...For many centuries wine lovers have respected this region for producing some of the noblest wines. Almost half of this vineyard is cultivated as Grand Cru zone with the utmost respect to nature and Mother Earth...
	Gewürztraminer Classic, Famille Hugel 	Gewürztraminer	 2023	£28	smoked salmon, strong cheese, spicy Asian dishes	Emblematic grape of Alsace, slow maturation, cool nights give its full varietal expression. Dry but intensely aromatic. *...The grapes produced here are of the highest quality because of the ethics followed in the viticultural practices. Hand-picking of the fruits, planting young vines, lack of fertilisers, etc. In addition to its own estate, the Hugel family has also acquired over 100 hectares of vineyards from the region's local growers in some of the premium wine-producing regions of Alsace. *
	Vendanges Tardives Gewurztraminer, Famille Hugel 	Gewürztraminer	 2015	£36 half	mature hard or blue cheese, fruity desserts	Particularly made in a late harvest, top-quality dessert wines. Overripe grapes picked well after the classic vintage in the greatest years only. The action of noble rot gives them an almost unlimited ability to age. They are part of the elite of the greatest wines in France. 2015 will go down as an exceptional vintage for the whole of France with one of the hottest driest summers since 2003 and a quality reminding us of vintages like 1945 or 1976!
	Pinot Noir Classic, Famille Hugel 	Pinot Noir	 2023	£28	charcuterie, red meat, cheese	Pinot Noir now represents 8% of the total production of Alsace and with global warming the wines are steadily gaining in density. Harvested in the first days of harvest, exclusively by hand, from clay and limestone vineyards in a dozen of the most favoured localities give this unique dry wine great finesse and balanced intensity.

	Muscadet de Sèvre et Maine 'Vallet', Château du Cléray 	Melon de Bourgogne	 2018	£25	moules marinière	Vallet is one of the best micro-terroirs in the Nantais and the crus of Muscadet. The vineyard enjoys an oceanic climate, where the vines send their roots into Volcanic rocks. The specificities of the subsoils of Château du Cléray give the wines their unique personality. Muscadet is a very unique style of wine and a tremendous choice for those looking to steer clear of standards and stereotypes.
	Muscadet, Pierre Brevin 	Melon de Bourgogne	2021	£14	shellfish, apéritif	Situated West of the Loire river facing the Atlantic, Muscadet vineyard enjoys a temperate oceanic climate. With this natural asset Pierre Brévin produces an amazing Muscadet, combining conviviality with simplicity whilst retaining a fine structure and beautiful balance.
	Vouvray, Pierre Brevin 	Chenin Blanc	2022	£14	veg, fish, poultry, cheese	In this region of the Loire valley, listed as a world heritage site by UNESCO for its wine, wine-growing is an age-old affair handed down over the generations. Pierre Brevin has produced a Vouvray with 100% chenin grapes, which revel in this terroir swept by climatic influences.
	Saumur Chenin Blanc, Domaine Berthier 	Chenin Blanc	 2023	£19	vegetarian, poultry, fish, cheese	Clement & Florian Berthier vineyard stretches from one end of the Loire's riverbanks to the other, from Sancerre to the Coteaux du Giennois. Clément and Florian Berthier combine traditional and modern-day practices to carry out the mission conferred upon them by their father, to preserve the family heritage with the same diligence.
	Pouilly-Fumé 'Saint-Andelain' Domaine Berthiers 	Sauvignon Blanc	 2024	£32	smkd salmon, shellfish,	The domain's secret has always been that it is the women who taste the wine before it is bottled. The upper Loire Valley is known for two iconic wine growing sub-regions – Pouilly Fume, and Sancerre. Crisp and aromatic, these wines are an amazing experience on both the nose and palate.
	Sancerre Blanc, Domaine Berthier 	Sauvignon Blanc	 2023  2022	£36 £69 magnum	seafood, spicy, veg	The Sancerre white vines are planted on the soils half silex soil half limestone of Sainte Gemme and Sury-en-Vaux, small villages located in the heart of the Centre-Loire area. These different "terroirs" help provide complexity to the wine, result in the wine which is well balanced and harmonious.
	Sancerre Rouge, Domaine Berthier 	Pinot Noir	 2023	£36	game, veal, pizza, poultry	In the Berthier family, the winegrowing profession has been handed down from father to son for five generations. Clément and Florian took up the torch in 2012 and are committed to developing the estate. This Sancerre Rouge is aged in older oak to show classic old world Pinot Noir notes.
	Sancerre Rose, Pascal Jolivet 	Pinot Noir	 2018	£36	grilled meats, warm cheese salad	Fruity, dry, charming and elegant. The Jolivet family entered the world of wine in 1926, when the Société de négoce Jolivet et fils was created. Until then, Louis and Lucien Jolivet had succeeded each other as cellar masters at the Château de Tracy. The constant attention to detail allowed Jolivet wines to develop their uniqueness over the years.

Italy	Pecorino Bianco, Vigneti Radica 	Pecorino	 2021	£19	pasta, snacks, veg, seafood	Abruzzo with its high mountains running down to the sea is an excellent place to make crisp white wines. Pecorino thrives here and gives good flavour and a pleasing waxy texture. Grapes are harvested from South-South East facing vineyards in the Terre de Chieti appellation, at an altitude of 100m on alkaline-clay soil. Unique ferment gives to this wine its own personality.
	Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Vigneti Radica 	Montepulciano	 2020 2021	£19	beef, pasta, veal, pork	Rocco Radica was famous in Abruzzo as he had the prize bull which he would lend to the other farmers. This led to him being nicknamed Rocco the Bull hence the label on this wine. Nowadays he is as famous for his winemaking! A proper spicy Montepulciano full of character. As the label would suggest, perfect with beef!
	Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Noi Cento, Roxan 		 2023	£15	beef, pasta, veal, pork	From the heart of Abruzzo over the Pescara river valley. Roxan is a co-operative of 700 producers founded 25 years ago collectively pooling together their grapes. The typical rolling, hilly environment of the area with its unique climate and soils, together with the skills of the grape-growers and modern wine-making processes, are all key factors for attaining the high standards of their wines.
	Primitivo di Manduria 'Cardinale', Paolo Leo, Puglia 	Primitivo	 2020	£19	beef, pasta, poultry, lamb	Primitivo is a huge ripe Italian grape which is the pride of the Apulia region in the south of Italy. Primitivo is a delightfully brash very dark wine, very juicy and very high in alcohol. In the winery surrounded by unspoiled nature and charming vineyards, today's owner Paolo Leo has introduced modern techniques of wine production preserving the traditional methods.
	Zensa Primitivo Bio, Puglia 	Primitivo	  2021	£19	beef, pasta, poultry, lamb	Zensa means "without" in Italian and the organic Zensa Primitivo is made without pesticides, fertilisers or weed-killers. Orion Wines created to bring together interesting wines from small growers and wineries from all over Italy, it retains complete control over the vineyards and growers they work with. The idea is to produce wines from indigenous grapes that express the typicity of the particular region they are grown.

Argentina	Malbec Fantasia, Mauricio Lorca Mendoza 	Malbec	 2024	£18	beef, lamb	Mauricio Lorca is a celebrity in Argentine wine world, and one of the nicest people you could hope to meet. Originally a doctor, he became one of Mendoza's leading modern winemakers. His vineyards are high altitude with dense, low yield plantings which result in wines with concentration but great freshness.
	Malbec Poetico, Mauricio Lorca, Mendoza 	Malbec	 2020	£28	beef, lamb	This is a blend of wines from Uco Valley Vista Flores and Los Árboles planted in 1999. It was aged in barrels for 14 months and spent another four years in bottles before its release to market. The result is a red with tremendous varietal purity, in a context of tremendous friendliness and balance.
	Cabernet Franc Malbec 'Natural', Mauricio Lorca, Mendoza 	Cabernet / Franc Malbec	  2023	£25	beef, lamb, poultry, pasta	Mauricio Lorca known for a philosophy of minimal intervention and precision viticulture. A standout versatile wine, it is notable for having no added sulfur. This wine is a modern take on Argentinian red blends, focusing on purity of fruit rather than wood influence. A top choice for a "natural" wine that still offers intense flavor and structure.
	El Supremo Malbec, Mendoza 	Malbec	2019	£15	beef, lamb, pork	An excellent exponent of this emblematic Argentine variety. Mendoza is considered one of the world's great wine capitals and producers worldwide. The first vines were planted in Mendoza in the 16th century by Jesuit pioneers.
	Domingo Molina Mortero Malbec, Salta 	Malbec	2018	£32	beef, lamb	This winery is located in the Calchaqui Valleys. A solid viticulture professionals the Domingo brothers have successfully put together the peculiarities of altitude grapes and the latest technology and facilities. Mortero (millstone) Malbec, a blend of two high altitude (2000m asl) vineyards.

Rioja, Spain's most celebrated wine region, is home to some of the most iconic wines. Rioja has a long history of winemaking, with evidence of viticulture dating back to the Roman Empire. The region was officially founded in 1925 and is now one of the most famous and respected wine regions in the world.

Spain, Rioja	Rioja LG de Leza Garcia 	Tempranillo	 2016	£32	beef, lamb, veal, poultry	Carefully selected grapes from the oldest and best family vineyards after maceration and fermentation at 82.4°F for 12 days and ageing in new French and American oak barrels for 10 months, bottled and remains ageing until released. *LG wine bottles may contain some sediment not affecting the wine's quality and integrity. Best decanted.
	Rioja Crianza 'Tinto Familia' Leza Garcia 		 2020	£20		Result of a strict selection of the best grapes from Leza Garcia's oldest vineyards and a superior winemaking. Macerated in small tanks. Refined in new American oak barrels for 14 months and aged in the bottle to reach the correct balance of all its elements. ...The oldest and best vineyards in the Najerilla Valley of family-owned Bodegas Leza Garcia are located in the heart of the Rioja Alta...
	Rioja Reserva Leza Garcia 	Tempranillo / Grenache	 2019	£22		A selection of grapes from family's best vineyards which after meticulous winemaking remains in American and French oak barrels for at least 24 months, then ageing in the bottle for at least 12 months. ...This family has been dedicated for generations to grape-growing and wine making, having received a legacy of caring for the land and a tradition of making the best wines...
	Rioja Gran Reserva Leza Garcia 		 2015	£28		The grapes from the best and oldest vines only during selected vintages are carefully selected, the wine is left to age for at least 24 months in American and French oak barrels and 36 months in the bottle. ...Leza Garcia produce wines that are unique and have their own personality, showing the terroir and their own winemaking style and knowledge...

Spain, Penedès Catalonia	Muscat Natureo Alcohol-Free, Familia Torres 	Muscat	0.0% ABV  2023	£10	aperitif, fish, seafood, rice, noodles	Muscat's grapey boldness makes it a brilliant choice for alcohol-free white. Made like any other still white, then gently de-alcoholised, it keeps the aromatics front and centre. Founded in 1870, Familia Torres is widely regarded as one of the world's most innovative wineries. They have reputation for combining innovation, dynamism and a commitment to quality has put them, and Catalonia, firmly on the world map.
	Garnacha-Syrah Natureo Alcohol-Free, Familia Torres 	Garnacha / Syrah	0.0% ABV  2023	£10	on its own, grill, veg, chicken	This is fermented like any other red, then gently de-alcoholised to hold onto texture and depth. Garnacha does the fruit, Syrah brings the spice, and what's left in the glass is smooth and gently warming. Nothing syrupy, nothing shouty - just a well-made red from Catalunya that happens to be alcohol-free. Today they remain a wholly independent and family-owned company, which is now run by 5th generation of the family.
	Rosé Natureo Alcohol-Free, Familia Torres 	Syrah / Cab Sav	0.0% ABV  2023	£10	on its own, grill, veg, fish	The winemaking follows the usual route, ferment first, remove the alcohol later, so it keeps the structure and feel of the real thing. A sharp, thirst-quenching option that isn't trying to be sweet or soft. Ideal if you're swerving the ABV but still want something pink, dry with crunch, clarity and a bit of backbone. Miguel A Torres is widely regarded as one of Europe's most eminent wine visionaries.

Lebanon, Bekaa Valley	Château Musar Rouge Gaston Hochar 	Cabernet Sauvignon	2000	£125	beef, lamb, venison	2000 was very much a Cabernet Sauvignon year which has resulted in a magnificent, long-lived wine. This wine is amazingly complex and still retains some primary fruit along with darker plum and damson flavours. 2000 vintage is a serious wine with serious ageing potential, but with a very approachable and open style which makes it perfect for drinking now as well as for cellaring.

The Sherry region (Marco de Jerez) in southwest Spain is a unique, historic wine-producing area comprised of a "triangle" between Jerez de la Frontera, Sanlúcar de Barrameda, and El Puerto de Santa María. Renowned for 3,000-year-old winemaking traditions.

Spain, Sherry	Manzanilla Papirusa, Lustau	Palomino	NV	£28	dry aperitif, fresh seafood, oysters, fish	Aged in average 5 year following a biological ageing, under a veil of yeast called "flor" in the cool, humid, salty air of a fishing town. Papirusa means "elegant and beautiful". It was the name of the doll that Emilio Lustau gave the daughter of Joaquín Burgos, first manager of Bodegas Lustau in the '40s. Lustau is the benchmark of Sherry wines worldwide with over 125 years of tradition. Founded in 1896, Bodegas Lustau is widely considered the world's most awarded sherry producer.
				£16 375ml
	Fino del Puerto, Lustau	Palomino	NV	£16 375ml	dry aperitif, ham, cheese, seafood, sushi and sashimi	Aged in average 5 year following a biological aging in the cool and humid air of the port town of El Puerto de Santa María, where the flor grows in its ideal environment. Dry, light, smooth Fino laced with scents of the sea and profound "flor" aromas. Operating from cathedral-like 19th-century cellars, Lustau is the only winery producing in all three cities of the "sherry triangle" (Jerez, Puerto de Santa María, Sanlúcar), high-quality, diverse sherry styles and brandy.
				£16 375ml
	Pedro Ximénez San Emilio, Lustau	Pedro Ximenez	NV	£34	digestive, rich desserts, ice cream, strong blue cheeses	Pedro Ximénez grapes are laid out in the sun after picking until they are practically raisins. After that the fermentation starts slowly and its halted to maintain all the natural sugars. The resulting wine ages in for 12 years in contact with the air in Jerez de la Frontera. Enormously sweet, velvety, soft, well balanced. Lustau has won numerous prestigious awards, including being named the best sherry producer multiple times at the International Wine Challenge.

Port	Graham's Quinta Dos Malvedos	Touriga Nacional / Touriga Franca	 2012	£46	mature, hard & blue cheese	Very youthful deep purple colour for its age. Powerful on the nose and with great depth of fruit, packed with layers of preserved dark fruits such as cassis and blackberry. Full bodied and structured on the palate, with complex flavours of spicy, sweet, lively ripe berry fruits and nuances of black chocolate. Excellent balance combined to give ripe and firm tannins that lead to a prolonged and dry-ish finish, despite the sweetness.
	Graham's 20 Year Old Tawny	Touriga Nacional	NV	£18 20cl	cheese, desserts	The 20-Year-Old Tawny has an amber, golden tawny colour and an excellent bouquet of characteristic nutty flavour and delicious mature fruit with hints of orange peel. Exquisitely mellowed by careful ageing, the palate is rich, softly sweet and smooth.
	Graham's Vintage 1985	Touriga Nacional	 1985	£155	mature, hard & blue cheese	Graham is a great port house, producing one of the deepest-coloured and sweetest styles of vintage port. Along with Taylor and Fonseca, Graham has probably been the most consistent producer of great port in the post- World War II era. Their vintage ports are truly sublime and sumptuous. Graham is the undisputed star and kingpin of the 1985 vintage ports.
	Fonseca Vintage 1985 Classic	Touriga Nacional	1985	£185		Vintage Port wines represent the best of the products of an exceptional year. Unlike Port that age in wood, Vintage Port wines will continue to age and improve in bottle for decades. Fonseca 1985 has been providing enjoyment for the last decade and is at its peak now. A superb example of vintage Port, this will be perfect for a special occasion.
	Fonseca Vintage 2009 Classic		2009	£82		The 2009 Fonseca was a small production. This vintage has the highest anthocyanin count evolving into a magnificent port with a quintessential, primal Fonseca bouquet.

Dessert Wine	Sauternes Château Bastor Lamontagne, Bordeaux	Semillon / Sauvignon	2019	£36 half	desserts, foie gras, cheese	From the vineyard situated on the second terrace of the Garonne River. The consistent quality is the result of requirements ensuring the wine's personality corresponds precisely to its terroir. On the strength of its prestige, Chateau Bastor-Lamontagne is part of the Union des Grands Crus de Bordeaux.
	Vendanges Tardives Gewurztraminer, Famille Hugel, AOC Alsace	Gewürztraminer	 2015	£36 half	mature hard or blue cheese, fruity desserts	Particularly made in a late harvest, top-quality dessert wines from Alsace. Overripe grapes picked well after the classic vintage in the greatest years only. The action of noble rot gives them an almost unlimited ability to age. They are part of the elite of the greatest wines in France. 2015 will go down as an exceptional vintage for the whole of France with one of the hottest driest summers since 2003 and a quality reminding us of vintages like 1945 or 1976!
