1928 Graf Zeppelin cover flown on its first ever USA - Germany flight. After a two week stay at Lakehurst in New Jersey for emergency repairs following her first transatlantic flight from Germany to America, she departed the States on the 29th October arriving safely back in Germany on the 1st November.

RU253 £325 £65 per month for 5 months

Russell Boardman & John Polando signed 1931 Record Transatlantic Flight cover flown from New York - Istanbul. The duo established a new record for a long distance non stop flight with their flight from New York leaving on 28th July & reaching Istanbul on 30th July. This example was then forwarded to Dublin where it arrived on 24th August. A rare flight cover.

1911 FIRST UK AERIAL POST

The first UK airmail was the brainchild of Sir Walter Windham of the Royal Navy who worked alongside the Grahame White Aviation Company to achieve the feat. The first flight travelled between Hendon and Windsor on September 9th 1911 piloted by Gustav Hamel. Postal stationery was made available for the public to purchase in a multiple of colours and then carried on the flights.
